LIBRARY CATALOGUE

After receiving the required readings from the lecturers, check their availability in the Library catalogue.

In the book collection we have textbooks, books, journals, standards, patents that will be useful in the course of studies.

A circular inset image on the left side of the slide shows a woman with long brown hair, wearing a white lace dress, sitting on a bed. She is surrounded by several open books, some of which are floating in the air around her, suggesting a magical or dreamlike atmosphere of reading. The background of the inset is a light blue wall with a window.

MULTISEARCH EBSCOHOST

- accessible from the main Library website,
- it searches both printed and electronic resources,
- the search results links to:
 - CUT Library catalogue (if the item is available in our collection),
 - full text online (if the Library has access to the electronic version),
 - Interlibrary Loans service; it helps to bring in an item from another library.

INTERLIBRARY LOANS

- it brings in materials that are not available at the CUT Library and other libraries in Krakow (Cracow),
- orders can be placed to borrow books and to bring photocopies of articles or excerpts of works from Polish libraries or abroad,
- you must have a valid library account to use its services,
- orders should be placed via the form available on the website.

THE CUT REPOSITORY

is an institutional digital archive of scientific resources and educational materials and other resources related to the activities of Cracow University of Technology.

Collects:

- materials and provides Open Access to research results and publications whose authors are employees or students of the Cracow University of Technology or published by the CUT,
- digital versions of the CUT Library collection: journal articles, books, chapters or excerpts from books, research findings and scientific reports, theses, conference proceedings and presentations, teaching/learning materials and materials about the CUT units.
